

This course addresses the techniques, procedures, and ethical issues in the investigation of crime. The course introduces students to the organizations, be