

Student Services and Learning Resources

The Office of Student Needs provides support for current and former foster youth who do not meet NextUp eligibility, unaccompanied homeless youth, undocumented students, parenting students and students facing food and housing insecurity. Students who would like to learn more about the various services below should contact Director of Student Needs, Samantha Hernandez or visit the office located in Campus Center 302.

Resources for WVC Students

- Food resources
- Transportation Resources
- Housing resources
- Emergency Fund Assistance
- Book Vouchers
- Resources for Undocumented Students
- Clothing Resources
- School supplies, toiletry items and more.

<https://www.westvalley.edu/services/student-parents/>

West Valley College recognizes the unique needs of students who are parenting while in school. We strive to make every effort to support students, parents, children, and families both in-person and remotely. Please contact us at the links below for childcare, resources, such as food and transportation and any other